

I loved being on the "Do not call list". My life is so much better without answering calls you are not interested in. Please do not take this away.